Catholic Schools Week

Nearly 1.8 million students are currently educated in 6,352 Catholic schools in cities, suburbs, small towns and rural communities around the country. Students receive an education that helps them become critical thinkers, strong communicators and active members of society, thus equipping them for higher education, a competitive work environment, and most importantly, living a Christian life of virtue in a challenging society. In honor of Catholic Schools Week, we offer this Prayer for Teachers:

Lord God, your spirit of wisdom fills the earth and teaches us your ways.
Look upon these teachers. Let them strive to share their knowledge with gentle patience and endeavor always to bring the truth to eager minds.
Grant that they may follow Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life, forever and ever. R/. Amen.

—from Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers

Saint Blaise is the Patron Saint of:

Animals, Throat Ailments, Wool Traders & Wool Combers

Legend has it that as Blaise was hauled off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone. His feast day is Feb. 3. Blessings of the throats will take place at all Masses next weekend.

In Loving Memory

Remember in Prayer this Week:

Those who serve in our Military:

Marc Winchester Emily Weagle
Patrick Weeks Denzel Parker
Andrew Hafferty

Reminder: Forms are available at each parish to add names to the Prayer List or call the rectory at 508-865-6624 with your request. Names will be removed monthly.

Thanks from Why Me & Sherry's House

Alone we ask, "What can one person do?" History, however, shows us that courage can come from the most unlikely people; the most profound changes the world has ever witnessed are the result of one person deciding that something should be different. Sherry Shepherd, battling cancer herself, was touched by the enormous challenges facing families with childhood cancer and resolved to help them. Her determination has impacted countless lives in Why Me's 34-year history. We thank you for believing in Sherry's mission and helping us to continue providing life-enhancing support to these children and families. Author Steve Maraboli said, "A kind gesture can reach a wound that only compassion can heal." Your generosity demonstrates a shared belief, and we thank you for your kindness.
Your support makes the work we do and the services we provide possible. On behalf of the families, staff and board of Why Me, we thank you for your generous donation of gift cards with a total value of $1,000. We look forward to many more years of service and continuing the legacy of love that began with the compassion of one young girl that set us all on a better path.

Warm regards,

Cheryl A. Vaugh,

House Coordinator

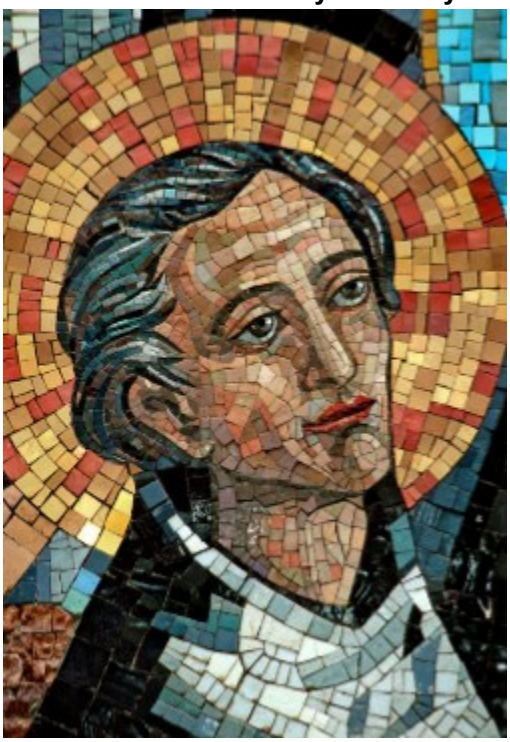
Saint of the Week

St. Thomas Aquinas
1224-1274
Feast Day—January 28



Thomas so shocked his noble Italian family when he entered the Dominicans in about 1244 that his brothers imprisoned him for a year. But he would not yield, and studied under St. Albert the Great, becoming a master of theology in 1256. For the rest of his brief life, the "dumb ox," as he was dubbed, taught, preached and wrote, producing the monumental "Summa Theologica." His thinking became enormously influential in later centuries and he was named a Doctor of the Church in 1567.

"St Thomas Aquinas, with farsighted wisdom, succeeded in establishing a fruitful confrontation with the Arab and Hebrew thought of his time, to the point that he was considered an ever up-to-date teacher of dialogue with other cultures and religions. He knew how to present that wonderful Christian synthesis of reason and faith which today too, for the Western civilization, is a precious patrimony to draw from for an effective dialogue with the great cultural and religious traditions of the East and South of the world." —Pope Benedict XVI, Angelus, January 28, 2007

Knights of Columbus update

Well it's back to business, not that it ever ended. In December, we participated in in both the Sutton and Millbury Chain of Lights. We raffled off Christmas dinner baskets at both events. The Sutton winner was Ann Fattman and Millbury's went to Vivian Yankee; congratulations to both of them.

We also helped in the collection of gifts for the Urban Missionaries Giving Tree, picking up the gifts at all participating parishes throughout the Worcester Diocese.

Which now bring us to 2020. We will start by inviting you to join the Knights and thousands of Catholics nationwide in the annual Respect Life Novena beginning Tuesday, January 21 - Wednesday, January 29. Sign up today at www.9daysforlife.com .

Also mark your calendars now for our Lenten Fish Fry beginning February 28th. Look forward to seeing you all there.

Peace be with you.

Sincerely,
Gary Pothier, GK
